Come and meet the family.

Perth may sometimes be described as Australia's most isolated city, but by no means is Perth lacking. Perth is a boom town of restaurants, bars, markets, and galleries – so when it comes to corporate functions and event venues, the only way Perth is behind its Eastern neighbours is in the time difference.

And of course, every family has a techy cousin armed with the latest iGadget. These are the function spaces that boast state-of-the-art audio and visual equipment.

Now imagine how much easier life would be if every family came with a manual on how to navigate through each individual's idiosyncrasies. That's exactly what this family has done for you.
